

The Point Session for parents and guardians on reducing young people's vulnerability to violence
18.30-19.00	Arrival, with drinks and snacks
19.00 – 19.25	PK008 Pilkington Lecture Theatre Discussion of the realities of knife crime and youth violence in Medway (chaired by Carol Stewart, MACA). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Prof Alex Stevens: Summary of action points from The Point day conference.</li> <li>○ Chief Inspector Rob March: Knife crime and youth violence in Medway</li> <li>○ Tracie Stocker, STOP campaign</li> </ul>
19.25 – 20.30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Facilitated discussions of how parents/guardians can engage with their children to keep them safe (led by Revd Nathan Ward).</li> </ul>

The Point session for parents and guardians will take place in the lecture theatre (PK008) in the Pilkington Building on the Universities at Medway campus (postcode ME4 4TB).

Session in the Pilkington Building

Parking in the Drill Hall car park